Peckham Palms, Peckham Rye Hair and Beauty Hub

The Palms is a retail space, in the heart of Peckham, providing hairstyling and beauty services. As part of on-going redevelopment of the Peckham Rye Station area, Southwark Council relocated the many hair and beauty businesses originally based in Bleinheim Grove area to a new build purpose designed facility on the site of former disused garages in Bournemouth Close.

The council partnered with design company Something & Son to manage the site and support the independent businesses to make Peckham Palms to destination for Afro-Caribbean hair and beauty in London.

We completed the construction of retail space for the hair and beauty shops a purpose designed, palm-tree themed, beauty boulevard with a roof canopy. This new centre for hair and beauty draws its inspirations from Peckham's cultural heritage and distinctiveness providing a hub for African-Caribbean hair styling and beauty businesses.
